

Garrett's Space is excited to announce its third annual 24-hour virtual fundraiser to raise money for its wellness programming and a holistically-focused residential center for young adults struggling with significant mental health challenges.

The LIVESTREAM will feature an incredible lineup and participants engaged in healing practices.

TUNE IN TO SEE

Top artists, including Emilie Kouatchou, the first Black woman to play Christine in Phantom of the Opera on Broadway; comedian Rosie O'Donnell; Reneé Rapp, a star of Mean Girls and The Sex Lives of College Girls; Erik and Christopher Ewers, co-directors of the new Ken Burns film, "Hiding in Plain Sight"

Leading mental health advocate Patrick Kennedy,
Rep. Jamie Raskin and Michigan Senator Gary Peters.

Mesmerizing poets and engaging rappers

Inspirational speakers who have been touched by depression and suicide

Classes taught by leading fitness and yoga instructors as well as a meditation session led by the renowned Tara Brach

DATE:

THE VIRTUAL LIVESTREAM WILL BEGIN AT 11:00AM ON SEPTEMBER 11TH
AND RUN UNTIL 11:00AM ON SEPTEMBER 12TH

Click here to join the livestream

THERE WILL ALSO BE A SILENT AUCTION
INCLUDING A WIDE VARIETY OF GOODS AND SERVICES

Visit our website for more details including a schedule of the lineup of participants:
garrettsspace.org

For questions or to donate items for the silent auction, contact Rachel Sulkowski:
734-673-5598 rsulkows@umich.edu

Anyone can view this from anywhere in the world, so please spread the word.
We hope you'll join this exciting event to benefit an important cause!